

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would pre-empt or lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Since this law has went into effect we have experienced an almost 100% decrease in telephone solicitation calls. This has been a wonderful blessing to my family and my business.

Thank you for your consideration.

Paul